FROM YOUR PRESIDENTS

Presidents’ Corner

What a beautiful day we had at our Annual Fall Welcome at the Houston Mill House! We were delighted to have Debbie Wagner and three scholarship recipients join us. The fabulous food prepared by EUWC officers and board members, was thoroughly enjoyed by all. As Vice President for Membership, Jackie Walker handled all of the details beautifully and we could feel the excitement in the air! We were happy to welcome seven new members-- yes, seven new members!!

Our regular membership meeting on September 23 was well attended and included a delightfully informative program by Geraldine Higgins, Director of Irish Studies at Emory. Her topic was Seamus Heaney. Thank you to hostesses Rosalie Cooper, Vanessa Wardi and Pat Laszlo for a fabulous selection of Irish treats.

Sharon Gunn and Lex Gilbert teamed up to produce our impressive yearbook. Be sure to pay your dues to Martha Catherwood so you can get your copy!

We would like to extend a warm welcome to our new members. We are glad you are part of our group. Please join us October 8th, for our Ladies Night Out.

See you soon,
Ann Marie and Louise

LADIES NIGHT OUT

Wednesday, 8th of October
From 6:30-8:30

at Bette Walton's home
867 Castle Falls Drive NE.

RSVP by Tuesday October 7 elizabethwalton@mac.com

Parking is on the street and there is only one step to negotiate when her home is entered through the kitchen.

Margaritas will be served. New members are especially welcome so that we can get to know them. It will be appreciated if all who wish to attend would bring an appetizer or dessert to share.

October 28 Membership Meeting

Speaker: Jeanne Lee: a teacher at the Paideia School who offers a course on civil liberties and the Supreme Court.

Hostesses: Carolyn Thrower, Pat Lazlo and Drindee McCauley
October Share The Care

Community Advanced Practice Nurses, Inc.
For October’s Share the Care we will be gathering supplies for CAPN (Community Advanced Practice Nurses, Inc.). Founded in 1998, CAPN is a non-profit clinic providing free physical, mental, and preventative health care services to homeless and medically underserved individuals and families in Metropolitan Atlanta, without regard to race, age, sex, sexual orientation, religion, political affiliation or national origin. The purposes are to provide opportunities for people to learn healthy adaptive life skills; create a climate of supportive health care encounters; advocate for the needs and services of the target population; promote collaborative relationships with agencies serving the needs of people; foster an environment conducive to learning for health care and social service professionals.

CAPN’s donation wish list includes: 1) medical supplies, 2) clinic /office supplies, and 3) patient supplies (noting that they see more female patients than males).

Among the medical supply items needed are: pain meds, non-drowsy allergy meds, anti-itch and anti-fungal creams, vitamins, Band-Aids, 3 oz. paper cups.

Clinic/ office supplies needed are: large trash bags, mop and bucket, toilet paper, liquid hand soap/hand sanitizers, post-it, binder and paper clips, pens, file folders and envelopes.

Patient supplies needed include: deodorant, sanitary napkins, body soap, towels, shampoo and conditioner, body lotion, toothbrushes and toothpaste, socks and underwear.

This is a wonderful organization helping individuals and families living on the edge. Let’s help to support them and the people they serve! Thank you in advance for your generosity.

Teri, Cheryl, and Vanessa
Book Discussion Groups

A.M. Book Discussion: "After a summer break the A.M. book club resumed meetings on September 26 at the home of Sonja Jones. We discussed Passage to Power by Robert Caro; it is the fourth volume in Caro's "Years of Lyndon Johnson" series. The discussion was lead by Iris Frank. Despite it's length it was a timely and exciting read as many reevaluate his presidency.

In October we meet on the 23rd at Gerda Reichert’s to discuss The Runaway by Nobel Laureate Alice Munro, internationally famous short story writer. The discussion will be led by Jane Kibler"

PM Book Discussion The PM Book Group meets on the first Thursday of each month, starting at 12:30. Members bring a sack lunch if desired and hostess provides dessert after discussion. The October 2 meeting will be at the home of Pat Laszlo, when we will discuss Finding Nouf, by Zoe Ferraris. At the November meeting we will discuss The Goldfinch by Donna Tartt.

New Book Discussion group meets on the second Thursday of the month at 1:00 pm at members’ homes. The October 9 meeting will be at Jackie Walker’s house to discuss The Promise of Stardust by Priscilla Sibley

Start of fourth group. Most of the book groups are full so Carol Allain would like to start a new one. Contact her at queenieb4@gmail.com

Tuesday Tastings

Join us the 3rd Tuesday of each month for lunch together at a different neighborhood restaurant!
The next one is October 21st at 11:30am at La Parrilla, a rather new and excellent Mexican restaurant in Toco Hill. I think the group will really enjoy the experience. Additionally, the restaurant contributed to our silent auction last year so we want to support them too.
Organizer: Jackie Walker
Please RSVP by October 20 to Jackie phone: 404-325-5073 Email: jacquelinewalker@mac.com
